1. In late September 100 Soviet Air Force (SAF) officers with ranks of captain, major, and lieutenant colonel, and commanded by Chu-yang-k'o (朱楊可), arrived in Mukden from East Germany. These officers were all jet pilots selected from SAF units in East Germany and sent to Manchuria to fly MIG-15's on combat missions in Korea. This was done to enable these pilots to obtain actual combat experience against United States pilots. They are all scheduled to return to East Germany after two months in Manchuria.

2. A Joint Sino-Soviet Air Raid Defense Command post at Ch'angtienhok'ou (124-48, 40-25) is responsible for the air defense of the Korean and Manchurian sides of the Yalu River. Between 20 and 30 September, a total of 60 anti-aircraft guns of Soviet manufacture and a large number of cases of air defense equipment arrived at Ch'angtienhok'ou for the use of this command.
